The image shows a software interface titled "Lesson Portal". It features a list of instructional steps. Step 1 is "Establish server connection with Altaris software." Step 2 is "Login to the brain center platform." Step 3 is "Establish your outrage connection with Sour Borouch." and is highlighted with an orange border and a callout arrow pointing to it from the left. Step 3 includes three bullet points: "Begin by typing on your keyboard", "Hit the backspace button twice", and "Then rapidly pound that enter key". Below step 3 are two buttons: "VIEW TIPS" (blue) and "SHOW ME" (orange). Step 4 is "Break down ROI into a fancier figure." and has a red "x" icon to its left and a mouse cursor to its right. Step 12 is "How will the double digits work in this design." At the bottom of the interface is a progress bar with a blue segment and a play/pause icon on the right.
